COMMENCEMENT PROGRAMS ENDS SCHOOL YEAR

Sunday, May 19th, and Monday, May 20th, brought to a close the school year on the campus at Barium Springs and also the high school commencement exercises for this campus.

The Reverend Charles H. Sides, Jr., pastor of the Harrisburg Presbyterian Church, was the guest minister for the baccalaureate sermon in Little Joe's Presbyterian Church. Dr. Frontis Withers Johnston from Davidson College delivered the address before the graduates on Monday morning at eleven o'clock.

As the seniors filed out of the auditorium, the end of one era was noted and the beginning of a new one anticipated. The moving of the high school to Troutman to be a part of the larger consolidated school will hereinafter see the commencement exercises held in conjunction with that school in Troutman. Thus, the separate graduating exercises for Barium Springs will be a thing of the past. The school principal, R. G. Calhoun, has been witnessing these exercises for thirty years, and it will seem very strange in 1958 not to be getting ready for commencement at Barium Springs. While there is always sadness in changing a custom, there is also the pleasure in the more profitable experiences to be gained as a part of the larger community in which the Barium students will attend school and graduate.

Death Claims James P. Gray

Iredell Morning News

The main auditorium of the First Presbyterian Church was filled Sunday afternoon, April 14th, for the funeral of James P. Gray, friends being present from Statesville and Iredell County, from Barium Springs, Loray and a number of points at greater distances.

Mr. Gray's pastor, Rev. N. R. McGeachy conducted the service and there was music by the church choir. Interment was in Oakwood.

Mr. Gray was 63 years old. The son of the late Captain I. A. Gray and Mrs. Mary Ramsey Gray he was born on January 27, 1894. He graduated from Mt. Ulla High School, but prior to that he attended the schools at Barium Springs and in later years he and his wife, who graduated from Barium Springs High School were paid the high honor of being selected as the couple, that in their lives and in the influence they exerted, best exemplified the high standards of Barium's teachings. They were given a medal and at the same time were recognized as the first boy and girl from Barium campus to be married.

Mr. Gray was a newspaperman for more than 30 years of his life. He was connected

LET US GIVE THANKS

A day of dedication for the new church building is now in sight. The memorial gifts have continued to be a part of this lovely edifice and it appears that all indebtedness will be removed by the first of August. The memorials received between now and then will continue to be a part of the church memorial. Sunday, August 4th, has been set as the day of dedication and Homecoming. Dr. W. Taliaferro Thompson will preach the sermon of dedication and all the alumni will be invited for a Homecoming Day on the campus. Let us give thanks unto Almighty God for His goodness and rejoice in this House of Worship to be dedicated to His honor and glory.

COTTAGE NEWS

Rumple Hall

Hi Folks—

Here we are again to bring you news. We certainly have had some nice sunny weather lately: even though we did not expect such heat so soon, we are enjoying it.

We all enjoyed Easter. The Adult Choir gave a cantata called "The Crucifixion."

We got our report cards last week and had some very good grades. Two of our girls have parakeets and they wake us up bright and early every morning as soon as the sun is up.

Our Senior High Fellowship has had the privilege of going to two different church rallies. One was a District Rally at Salisbury, and the other was a Senior Rally at Davidson. Some of our girls went to Tarboro and Chapel Hill for a visit. They all enjoyed this very much.

The Rumple Hall Girls.

Howard Cottage

Hi,

It's us, the Beanstringers, again. We have really had a busy week-end. To start it off with a bang, Diane Mobley came to visit us. We enjoyed having her and are looking forward to her coming again at commencement.

The Easter Bunny came to see us and left us lots of eggs and candy. We were all so dressed up, and we enjoyed the Easter Service very much. We were very proud of Brenda, Elva, Vicki, Martha, and Nancy, all of whom sang in the Chancel Choir. The cantata, the Crucifixion, was lovely.

We have had three birthdays this month and there are two more yet to come. Miss Sims' birthday is on Saturday of this week. We wonder what is going to happen—we are hearing lots of whispers these days.

The Beanstringers.

CONFERENCE MET IN ASHEVILLE

The Southeastern Conference for Workers in Homes for Children held its fifty-second annual meeting in Asheville, N. C. One hundred and fifty persons representing child-caring institutions in the nine southeastern states spent three days in regular session in the mountain city. Miss Helen Hagan, the assistant Executive Director of the Child Welfare League of America conducted the Institute on "Values of Group Living for Children." Mr. Alton Broten, of the School of Social Work of the University of North Carolina, addressed the group on the Housemothers' Training Program. Addresses by the President, The Reverend Leon Smith, and by Mr. D. Hiden Ramsey, together with the business sessions which were held concluded the conference work.

Officers for the new year are: Rev. A. B. McClure, President; Miss Mary Bruce Roberts, Superintendent of the Hillside Cottages, Atlanta, Georgia, Vice-President; and Miss Lucille Reed of the Mills Home at Thomasville, N. C., Secretary.

The Conference voted to meet in Charleston, South Carolina in 1958. Members of the program committee appointed to arrange for the program in the next year are: Mr. M. T. Lambeth, of the Children's Home in Winston-Salem; Alton Broten of the Child Care Project, Chapel Hill; Everett Spell, Charleston, S. C.

ALUMNI NEWS

David Stanley died April 6th and was buried in High Point on Sunday, April 7th. He left Barium in 1916 after having been here for ten years. Our sympathy is extended to the members of his family and to his friends.

Cromer Curtis is at his home in Marion, after serving for three years in the Air Corps. He came by Barium on his way from Washington.

George Landrum was a visitor on the campus recently. He travels for a clothing company in New York and has North and South Carolina as his territory.

Jerry Young is working in Wilson, N. C. He was at Barium Easter Sunday.

Seniors Plan For The Future

Ninety-one years of home life at Barium Springs will be brought to a close with the graduating exercises on Monday, May 20th. The six boys and three girls of the class have lived in the Home a total of ninety - one years, one month, and twenty - seven days. The shortest time is three years, nine months, and twenty-eight days for Oscar Eugene Utsman, and the longest time is fourteen years, four months and five days for Ronnie Ray Hudgins. Nancy Kyles who lives in the community has had all twelve of her grades at the Barium school, and Mac McClure joined the present group in the fifth grade and has journeyed with them through the senior year. For these eleven boys and girls there lies in the immediate future further education, nurse's training, beautician school, employment, and Armed Services.

The records show that Fulton LeNair Burns came to Barium Springs from the Immanuel Presbyterian Church in Wilmington, N. C. Bernice Kuykendall and Lawton Rice came from the Westminster Presbyterian Church in Charlotte and Ronnie Hudgins came from the same city but from Williams Memorial Church. Burlington and the East Burlington Presbyterian Church is the home of Barbara Ann Johnson, while Addie McEwen claims Clarkton and the Clarkton Presbyterian Church. Sidney Morrison is from the Loray community, north of Statesville, and the Concord Presbyterian Church. Walter Plyler is from Kannapolis and Indian Trail, associated with the Presbyterian Church at Indian Trail. Oscar Utsman comes from Hillsboro through the Presbyterian Church at Mebane, N. C.

Changing from seniors to alumni is quite a difficult task. It means a change of residence, new friends, new locations, new work, and it means progress and growth. While there is eager anticipation to move on, there is also the inward fears of moving out and the pleasant memories of living together. These will now join the thousands of others who have moved forth from the lovely campus and sheltered life of Barium to the larger world and further training, new service, and greater things in the days that lie ahead.

17 Children Join The Church

It was indeed an inspiring service when seventeen boys and girls from the Church family made their profession of faith and united with Little Joe's Presbyterian Church. These children had attended regular communicants' classes and been examined and received by the Session and were presented in conjunction with the Morning Worship Service for their public profession of faith.

with The Statesville Daily and The Landmark, joining the papers in 1921 and serving until they were sold in May 1953. He was news editor of the papers and he also, at times, did a bit of writing. He expressed himself in a most readable style and attracted favorable comments, particularly with the stories he picked up around the railroad station, where he loved to go on off moments. He liked sports, could report them in entertaining fashion and, as he had leisure, he found pleasure in attending local games, especially the ones at Barium.

Raised a Presbyterian, he had been an elder in the church for many years and was active in Sunday School work. He was a kindly and a willing neighbor and he was a loyal friend, gifted with a sense of humor that made him an entertaining companion.

On August 18, 1915, Mr. Gray married Miss Annie Hartsell and they established a home that has centered a very close, and a very outstanding family life, grandchildren, as children of the home, bearing testimony in their lives to its fine influence.

Mr. Gray has been retired since May 1953, and for the past two years and more he has been in failing health. He died Saturday morning at his home on the Wilkesboro road. He is survived by his wife and six children: James P. Gray Jr. and Mrs. C. W. Walsh of Statesville; Robin B. Gray of Atlanta, Ga.; John L. Gray of Gaffney, S. C.; Boyd Gray, U. S. Army, stationed in Mexico; and Mrs. F. E. Alexander of Charlotte.

One sister, Mrs. H. F. Denson of Atlanta, Ga., survives and there are seventeen grandchildren.

Staff Notes

Miss Reba Thompson was called to Spartanburg, S. C. on the Easter week-end because of the death of her brother-in-law, Mr. DeWitt McCoy.

Mrs. Dot Marshall has taken on a new activity. In addition to being dietician, she is also becoming the rose garden specialist. The circle in the driveway behind the kitchen is to become the beauty spot of the campus according to her predictions.

Miss Rebekah Carpenter and Miss Pat Buercklin lived through a two-day trip with a bus-load of juniors to Tarboro. They each report a wonderful time — a good trip all the way there and back—and a most enjoyable visit.

Miss Neely Ford whose first love is "my boys" has a second love which is the mountains of Western North Carolina. A week-end in that direction recently gave her great satisfaction and pleasure in seeing the Waynesville area.

Mrs. Arthur Hanks still wonders how children can find all the dirt that gets together on their clothes that come to the laundry. Even with the antiquated machinery which she has to work with, she and her staff do a fine job in turning out clean clothes.

Mrs. Helen Fox and Miss Louise Campbell are just stitching up a storm in the sewing room trying to get the juniors and seniors outfitted in evening dresses for the gala events.

Superintendent A. B. McClure was elected president of the Southeastern Conference in its spring session.

Harry E. Barkley, former Barium teacher, has resigned as superintendent of Mountain Orphanage, effective June 1957. Future plans for the Barkleys have not been announced.

Junior-Senior Staged At Troutman

Saturday, May 4, was quite a gala evening for the juniors and seniors of Barium Springs and Troutman Schools. The junior classes of the two schools united in preparing for and inviting the senior classes of the two schools; thus, making this delightful event of every high school a joint affair. The school cafeteria, beautifully decorated, was filled with the four hundred persons invited. After the banquet, the tables were removed and the Junior-Senior Prom was held.

It is particularly interesting that the students of the two schools requested this joint get-together; thus, evidencing the delight of the students in the new relationship.

Neil McKee was a visitor on the campus recently. He is a mechanic with the State and services 60 school buses. He and his family live in Reidsville. He is Assistant Superintendent of the Sunday School which he attends.

Mirton Cox, who is with the Air Force at Lake Charles Air Force Base, was a visitor on the campus.

Edna Baucom, student at A.S.T.C. went to Chapel Hill recently with the Math Club to see the Easter Story at the Planetarium.

Leroy and Judy Norman write interesting letters of the happenings at Omaha Air Force Base.

The announcement of the engagement of Patsy Jean Lamont and Palmer Willcox appeared in the Charlotte Observer recently. A June wedding is planned.

Born to Jane (Feimster) and Julius Rakestraw in Chicago on March 24th a daughter, Vickie Lynn.

Mrs. Carrie Smith and Miss Elizabeth Powell of Oakland. California spent the night and attended Church services on Sunday.

Jimmy Harwell and Clayton Miller spent Easter week-end at Barium. Both are still in service.

Peggy Cox and her husband, Glenn Mason, from Washington, N. C., spent Easter Sunday at Barium.

ATTENTION ALUMNI!

The president of the Alumni Association and the Home are compiling a correct mailing list of all the former students of the Home. It is urgent that every former student of Barium Springs send to the Home a present correct address. Please use a postal card or the blank below and mail immediately. If the girls who are now married will give their maiden name it will help in setting the records straight. Don't put it off! Get a card today and send it to Barium Springs so that you can receive the news from your Alumni President and have word from the Home concerning the Homecoming to be held Sunday, August 4th.
